Blood under the Boardroom

Employees Die, Data stolen while Management Meets on Sales Overseas

By Wharez Waldo

Yesterday several employees were brutally murdered outside LuCom Ltd., a child company of MCT, while the Directors were having a late conference call with Japan on overseas sales. The victims were Alice Jensen, Corp Secretary for three years at LuCom and Allen ‘Al’ Ethland, a Security Guard. Both were savagely beaten, stabbed and robbed of their commlinks right on the stairs of LuCom headquarters. Identification was made through their security RFIDs in the back of their hands. Alice is survived by her parents and a sister in Seattle, Mr. Ethland’s closest relatives could not be reached, though last known address for his brother was in New Orleans.

Also stolen or destroyed was several years’ work of LuCom’s technology development. Local sources, under the condition of anonymity, say they must have hit hard and fast through the system, leaving only the virtual conference line alone. So, like Nero fiddling as Rome burned, CEO Takahashi talked about product placement while criminals brutally beat up his employees, walked into his building and trashed his computers.

Sources estimate that the whole crime was committed in less than 15 minutes; A number that police fear if it becomes a new trend. Who has the means and cold-blood to commit this crime? Topping the list is the Casquilho family. Arrested hours ago, as prime suspect for the crime was one Dean Costello. He has been charged with the murders and criminal hacking of LuCom. Sources say he was involved with the late Ms. Jensen prior to her death, and was seen entering LuCom that day. Who is this Mr. Costello, you ask? Why he’s the number one Hacker for the Casquilho family. Prior arrests have similar Motives. Though, given the nature of the physical brutality, the police are interrogating him on who in the Mob family helped him in this crime. Police are also bringing in every convicted Family member to see if they’ll crack. Good luck to them in that.

Knight Errant has secured every recording including this reporter’s vid feed to look for clues. Detective Jack Diamond, lead investigator, had this to say, “We are pursuing all leads in this case. Justice will be served.”

So what’s happening with LuCom? MCT stock fell 10 points, but started to recoup with a new ad blitz in the Asian market. The blood was cleaned off the steps the today and the doors re-opened. Nothing personal, wage slaves. It’s just business as usual with LuCom.
Dean is a late 20-something hacker for the Casquilho family. His good looks and charms, have lead him to seducing corporate secretaries/female wage slaves to gain access to their corporations for schemes of blackmail and extortion. Only once was he caught in a sting operation. That put him away for 5 years, but he gained respect, as he never gave up the family to police. He’s moved away from his previous MO, to working money laundering and writing fake licenses for the Don.

For two years Jack worked in the shadows identifying key players in crime syndicates and setting up sting operations. He changed job positions when his data trail caught up to him. He now investigates criminal activity, but still has a soft spot for hard luck runners. Jack has been at the end of a bad deal with Mr. Johnson before and it left him jaded.

Jack harbors some eccentricities from his time undercover. He carries his commlink like a pocketsec, only pulling it out to do work with an attached display. He manually drives a car with a physical switch to disable autopilot. And he keeps his data trail to a minimum with certified credsticks.

At 2m and 100kg, Miguel fills most rooms that he walks in. He's loud, brash, and often tries to intimidate those around him if he thinks that he can get away with it. He is the street though down to his badly shaven head and gold plated tusk. The ork understands the pulse and hardship that moves through the squatter life. Since becoming more legit, he has developed a soft spot for some of the untouchable groups—older women and young children. Under his coat, Miguel generally has a couple bucks in hard currency or a few granola bars to pass out.
